GUSTAV STICKLEY HOUSE RESTORATION – PHASE 2 LIMITED USE LIMITED ACCESS (LULA) ELEVATOR

Request Issued: Friday, June 27, 2025

Proposals Due: Monday, July 14, 2025 at 1:00 pm

Background Information

The mission of the Greater Syracuse Land Bank is to acquire and stabilize vacant and abandoned properties to facilitate their return to productive use. The Land Bank owns a variety of properties including vacant and improved lots with occupied and vacant structures, mostly residential but some commercial. Most of these properties are located in the City of Syracuse, although we own properties throughout Onondaga County.

The Gustav Stickley House, located at 438 Columbus Avenue in Syracuse, is a unique icon in Syracuse history and the former home of Gustav Stickley, an early founder and advocate of the American Arts and Craft Movement. After a fire in 1901, Gustav Stickley substantially modified the house, creating what is today recognized as the first residential Craftsman style interior. Once abandoned and fallen into disrepair, the property is now being restored to its original glory through a partnership between the Greater Syracuse Land Bank, which owns the property, and the Gustav Stickley House Foundation (GSHF), which was formed to preserve the house and promote the legacy, ideals, and work of Gustav Stickley and the American Arts and Crafts Movement of the early 20th century. The exterior of the house was restored in Phase 1, completed in 2018. This included the reconstruction of the original front porch, extensive repairs to the siding and trim, window restoration, structural stabilization, a new roof, asbestos abatement, and painting the house with historically accurate colors.

Phase 2 includes the complete restoration of the historic areas including the entire ground floor of the building, new guest suites on the second and third floors, a caretaker apartment in the basement, and a rear addition to ensure safety and accessibility for all visitors.
